As our organization makes efforts to move towards a more equitable society, we have shifted how we credit our Individual and Corporate Donors and Volunteers. All supporters are listed alphabetically below, and traditional giving levels have been removed from our Donor List. This is an important step that reflects our values, because every donation (of time, money, or in-kind support, at any amount) is important to Wide Angle. In addition to the donors listed by name, we recognize and acknowledge those who make contributions through workplace giving campaigns, AmazonSmile, or other special campaigns. We may not know your names, but we are humbled by your generosity.

Volunteer Spotlight: David Shapiro

David sporting his new Wide Angle jacket.

David volunteered over 80 hours in FY23. Here he is helping staff member Peymaan to build charging stations for programming equipment.

I discovered filmmaking in high school - a spark that lit a fire that still burns today. Wide Angle's mission, to inspire creativity, build skills, instill confidence and give resource access, is a perfect runway for young people touched the way I was. Working as a volunteer, being part of the growth of the students and staff, is a joy."

- David Shapiro, Donor & Volunteer
