“We’re counting on today’s youth to change the world, since too many older folks refuse to do it; and the WAYM [youth] will be leading the way.”

- Anonymous Donor

As our organization makes efforts to move towards a more equitable society, we have shifted how we credit our Individual and Corporate Donors and Volunteers. All supporters are listed alphabetically below, and traditional giving levels have been removed from our Donor List. We feel that this is an important step that reflects our values, because every donation (of time, money, or in-kind support, at any amount) is important to Wide Angle. In addition to the donors listed by name, we recognize and acknowledge those who make contributions through workplace giving campaigns, AmazonSmile, or other special campaigns. We may not know your names, but we are humbled by your generosity.

“As an African American teenager, I find it strenuous to communicate my emotions verbally... The ‘Camera’ in my hand was like how a mother held a newborn baby, I was given the possibility to create something amazing... In that moment, I realized that my art was me and I was my art, the picture I had taken was my soul’s given form. So, to those who never pictured themselves as a photographer, or an artist in any form of media, take a picture of yourself or anything around you, BOOM, now you’re a photographer. Embrace it.”
